SAFETY ASSIGNMENT

Please answer the following safety questions. Feel free to walk around the lab to get the answers. That’s the whole idea! I want you to be familiar with the lab.

1. Where is/are the fire extinguishers? _________________________________________________________
2. Where can you find spill mix for large chemical spills? ___________________________________________
3. Where can you find gloves to wear during lab? _________________________________________________
4. Where can you find gloves for handling hot equipment? _________________________________________
5. Where is/are the safety shower(s)? __________________________________________________________
6. Where is/are the safety eye wash(es)? _______________________________________________________
7. Where is the phone you can call for help on? __________________________________________________
8. Where can the Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) be found? __________________________________
9. What two things do you do immediately if you spill something on yourself? ________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________
10. Where is the organic waste disposal? _________________________________________________________
11. Where is the broken glass container? ________________________________________________________
12. Where is the dustpan and brush? ___________________________________________________________
13. Where is the first aid kit? __________________________________________________________________
14. Where is the safety blanket? __________________________________________________________________
15. Should you use Bunsen burners to heat organic chemicals? Why or why not? ________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________
16. What two things do you do immediately if you spill acid or base on yourself? _______________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________
17. What do you do immediately if you break a mercury thermometer? _________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________